Hi Lily,

The big day has arrived! Phew!

Thank you so much for helping Lawrence purchase his flat. It really is a dream come true, especially in his modest price range in this part of W2. We are absolutely delighted and he realises how lucky he is.

The unforeseen problems which arose initially shocked us and could so easily have sabotaged the most important purchase of his young life. However, with your invaluable help and a pragmatic and magnanimous seller we accommodated them. Thank you!

We are all aware of how losing that special property or missing out on an opportunity in life can create a haunting memory, the significance of which over the years increases out of all proportion. We shall be eternally grateful for your magical help in securing the one which did not get away

Best wishes,
Ian
